

Embracing the Sacred Photography Playshop

With Carl Studna RScP, MA

I will be offering a small, hands-on photography class at my mountain home this Spring (about 45 minutes from Denver). The class will cover all of the elements of the, "Revealing the Sacred" Class that I've offered at Mile Hi, and also give us an opportunity to be in nature and go even deeper in how we open our view of perception to the light (inner and outer).

You will learn how to shoot in manual mode which will give you a greater understanding of how the camera works and allow you to get more shots that actually match what your inner vision sees and is wishing to convey. You will be given the personal support to ensure that you gain the clarity and comfort needed to use this marvelous instrument in a way that you really become familiar with it and to greater express your unique vision.

It would be pleasure to have you join me and explore the beauty and rich opportunities of this most wonderful medium. Please let me know by March 1st if you would like to register and attend.

All The Best,
Carl Studna
