

Special Photo Opportunity!

Internationally renowned photographer Carl Studna will be offering his luminary portrait services at our conference. Join Carl for an enriching portrait experience like no other that allows your essence to shine forth, bringing present, engaging and authentic results that truly represent your radiance. Carl is currently accepting appointments with our attendees to take portraits for personal and professional use. Carl has photographed many high profile celebrities ranging from the Dalai Lama to Paul McCartney and specializes in working with authors and entrepreneurs for book packaging and publicity needs. Professional hair and makeup, studio lighting and backdrops will be provided to create an amazing result. View Carl's luminary work at: www.carlstudna.com

Carl has substantially reduced his rates, giving you 75% off of his standard session fee. The following is an outline of exactly what is included in the package he is offering, and an explanation of the investment required:

- $447 per person
- 30 minutes of professional touchup of hair and makeup.
- 30 minute shooting time with one added sweater or jacket layer
- You'll receive 40 to 50 images and a thumb drive with all shots taken.

This investment reflects usage for all forms of publicity (web presence, cards, brochures, newspaper and magazine articles, etc.) If you have packaging needs (CD, DVD, Book, etc.) talk with Carl to discuss the licensing fees related to your specific project and he will work a reasonable deal with you to suit your specific needs.

A limited number of on site appointments with Carl will be available on Saturday, January 12th. Contact Carl at carl@carlstudna.com to reserve your space.
